

Introduction of

Kay DeKalb Smith

Kay DeKalb Smith is best described as “The Carol Burnett of Christian Entertainment.” This Alabama native is a former “Miss Alabama Teenager” and Opryland USA Performer.

Kay has recorded three videos which have aired on National TV as family comedy specials. She has made numerous appearances on “Swan’s Place” and has created Scripture Memory CD’s for Children. Her face has graced the cover of Home Life Magazine three times.

Living in Nashville, Tennessee with Businessman husband Ed Smith and two daughters.....Evin, newly married and Allie, who attends Belmont University ...the Smith’s are active members of The People’s Church.

You will not want to forget to “ take Kay home with you” at the end of the program....her video’s, CD’s, nightshirts and aprons.....make excellent gifts. Be sure to stop and purchase something that can be an encouragement to you or someone else.

Kay’s goal in life has been to make people happy...laughter is the tool God has given her to pierce the heart...she takes seriously the Biblical application that a merry heart does good like a medicine. Please welcome.....Kay DeKalb Smith.
